Dear Hiring Manager,

I hope this message finds you well. I'm writing to express my genuine interest in joining your team as a .NET Full Stack Developer. With hands-on experience in technologies like ASP.NET, C#, SQL Server, HTML & CSS and Angular, and a recent Master's in Computer Science from California State University, San Bernardin. I'm excited about the opportunity to contribute to meaningful, scalable solutions at your organization.

At Coforge Ltd, I worked on end- to-end development and enhancement of Duck Creek Policy system for a leading insurance company. Developed and configured insurance products using Duck Creek Author, focusing on Policy module implementation and customization. Analyzed business requirements and translated them into effective technical solutions within Duck Creek framework.

Beyond my professional experience, I've worked on academic projects involving mobile app development and Gesture controlled virtual mouse system using computer vision. These projects strengthened my ability to pick up new technologies quickly, collaborate effectively, and solve problems creatively. I'm also certified in .NET Full Stack Development from Coursera, upGrad certified React.js and AWS Cloud Practitioner.

Thank you for considering my application. I would be thrilled to bring my skills and enthusiasm to your team. I'd welcome the opportunity to discuss how I can support your goals and contribute to your continued success. Please don't hesitate to reach out to me. I'm available for an interview at your convenience.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Charan Tej Kotrakona
